

Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan coordinates a number of programs which are designed to make it as easy as possible for lawyers to volunteer their time pro bono.

CLINIC PROGRAM

DESCRIPTION: Volunteer lawyers attend regularly (e.g. a three hour session every two months) at a free legal clinic to meet with low-income clients and provide advice or, if so inclined, full pro bono representation. Volunteer Clinic Lawyers may also make referrals to the Panel Program.

LOCATIONS:

- Regina
- Saskatoon
- Prince Albert
- Other: _____ (Please specify, other locations in development).

PANEL PROGRAM

DESCRIPTION: Volunteer lawyers receive screened referrals (one to five files per year which may be accepted or declined) and provide full pro bono representation (the client remains responsible for disbursements). Specialized Panels provide assistance in particular areas of the law or for individuals requiring particular assistance.

LOCATIONS: Province-wide.

SPECIALIZED:

- General Panel
- Child & Youth Panel
- Criminal Appeal Panel
- Immigration & Refugee Panel
- Seniors Panel

SOLICITOR PROGRAM

DESCRIPTION: Volunteer lawyers provide assistance to charitable, non-profit, or community organizations of limited means. Lawyers may be placed with the Pro Bono Students Canada Program or through Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan.

LOCATIONS: Province-wide.

MENTOR PROGRAM

DESCRIPTION: Volunteer lawyers supervise a law student providing pro bono legal services or mentor another lawyer providing pro bono legal services.

LOCATIONS: Province-wide.

SUPPORT PROGRAM

DESCRIPTION: Volunteer lawyers do not provide direct legal services but engage in support services (e.g. precedent preparation, consulting, clinic coordination) for Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan approved pro bono programs.

LOCATIONS: Province-wide.

New ideas and projects are always welcome, please simply get in touch with Pam at Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan if you wish to explore ways to get involved.